REUBEN AND RACHEL.

Words by HARRY BIRCH.

Music by WILLIAM GOOCH.

Allegro moderato.

1. Reuben, I have long been thinking, What a good world
   (Till ready to sing.)

2. Reuben, I'm a poor lone woman, No one seems to

   If the men were all transported Far beyond the Northern Sea.
   care for me, I wish the men were all transported Far beyond the Northern Sea.
REUBEN.

Rachel, I have long been thinking, what a fine world this might be,
In a man without a victim, soon I think there's one will be,

If we had some more young ladies on this side the Northern Sea.
If the men are not transported far beyond the Northern Sea.

RACHEL.

Too ral too ral,
Too ral tee,

REUBEN.

Too ral too ral too,
Too ral too ral too,
If the men were all transported Far beyond the Northern Sea.

If we had some more young ladies On this side the Northern Sea.

(Till ready to sing.)

RACH. Reuben, what's the use of fooling,
    Why not come up like a man?
If you'd like to have a 'lover'
    I'm for life your 'Sally Ann.'

REU. Oh my goodness! oh my gracious!
    What a queer world this would be.
If the men were all transported
    Far beyond the Northern Sea!

RACH. Reuben, now do stop your teasing,
    If you've any love for me;
I was only just a fooling,
    As I thought of course you'd see.

REU. Rachel, I will not transport you,
    But will take you for a wife,
We will live on 'milk and honey,'
    Better or worse, we're in for life.
